LETTER ACCOMPANYING TERMINAL DISCLAIMERCommissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Dear Sir:

This accompanies the terminal disclaimer. Since there is no rejection or other indication in this application of a need for a terminal disclaimer Applicant believes the following discussion will be useful.

On about September 12, 2006 the undersigned had a discussion with the Examiner in connection with double patenting issues in connection with US Patent 6,021,398. A review of claims in this application compared to the claims in the '398 patent indicate that the claims in this application are different from the claims in the '398 Patent. In particular, each of the claims in this application specifies that "at least one of the bids including a set identification S_i identifying at least two different items". None of the claims in the '398 patent include this or similar language.

Based on the foregoing it's apparent that even if a allegation of double patenting were to be made, that allegation would not be based on "same invention" double patenting and thus could be cured by a terminal disclaimer. However, "obviousness" type double patenting requires more than merely showing claims with different scope; in order to justify an obviousness type double patenting rejection, there must be some evidence that, considering the differences between the claims the claimed invention would have been obvious to someone with skill in the art. In this prosecution there is no such evidence.

Thus applicant believes the request for a terminal disclaimer is completely unjustified. However, since this application has been pending for over six years (it was filed in January of 2000) Applicant is willing to file a terminal disclaimer if it will expedite issuance of the patent. Applicant notes that a terminal disclaimer can be withdrawn at least prior to the issuance of a patent (see the MPEP at page 1490-86). Applicant reserves the right to withdraw this terminal disclaimer in the event the claims are rejected or otherwise refused on any other grounds.

Please charge our Deposit Account No. 22-0185, under Order No. 21736-00010-US, in the amount of $130.00 covering the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.20(d). The Director is hereby authorized to charge any deficiency in the fees filed, asserted to be filed or which should have been filed herewith.

Dated: September 26, 2006

Respectfully submitted,
